

All about the Seaside

The Seaside

Do you know why it is called the seaside?

Is it called the seaside because there is a beach right next to the sea.

Visiting the Seaside

Lots of people visit the seaside. They might go for the day or on a holiday.

If it is very warm, lots of people want to go to the beach.

Photo courtesy of AdamKR(@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Keeping Busy at the Seaside

There are lots of things to do at the seaside.

Can you spot any fun activities on this picture?

Would you like to do any of these things?

Photo courtesy of Dlickr-Gidzy(@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

The Beach

The beach is so much fun. You can do so many different things.

Lots of people like to make sandcastles.
You will need a bucket and spade.

People play games on the beach.
You might want to take a ball.

Sometimes, people like to relax.
You could take a book to read.

Lots of people take picnics to the beach.
Remember to take a rug to sit on.

The Water

The water can be lots of fun too.
You must remember to wear arm bands if you cannot swim.
Remember to go in the water with a grown up too!

Lots of people like to swim and splash in the water.

People also like to stand on the shore and jump over waves.

In some waters, people like to use a snorkel to see the fish under the water.

In some places, surfing is popular. People try to stand on their board whilst going over waves.

Foods

There are lots of yummy foods to eat at the seaside.
Lots of the foods can be eaten on the go.

Lots of people like to eat fish and chips at the seaside. You can eat it out of the paper without a knife and fork.

You can buy sticks of rock to eat. Remember to not eat too much, it is full of sugar.

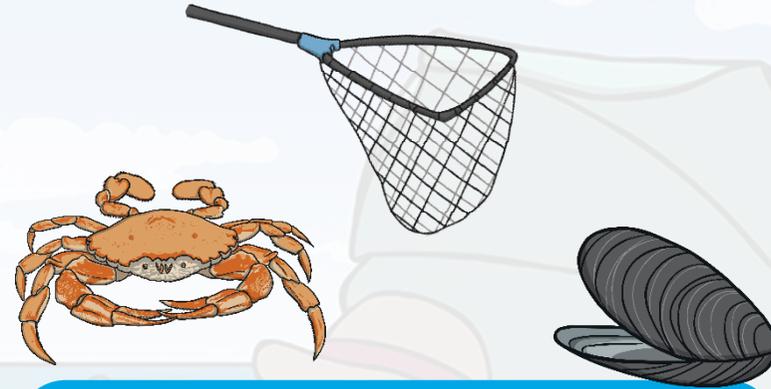

There are lots of other treats to eat. You could have a doughnut or some candyfloss.

Finding Things

The water and beach can also be great places to find new things!

You can find lots of lovely shells on the beach, especially on the sea shore. You could collect them in a bucket or use them to decorate a sand castle. Don't take too many shells though as some animals use them for their homes.

Rock pools can also be lots of fun. They are little pools that are found on the beach. You might find a crab or a mussel if you lift a rock. It's a good idea to use a net.

Have you ever collected anything on a beach or in the water?

Fun Things To Do

Near to the beach there are also lots of other fun things to do.

Next to some beaches, there are fun fairs. There will be lots of rides such as bumper cars, a big wheel and a carousel.

You can also find amusements. There are machines that you can put money in to try and win more money or prizes.

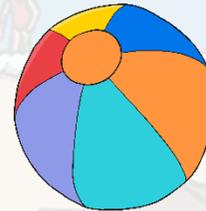

There are also machines where you can try and win a soft toy.

The Seaside

Imagine you were going to the seaside tomorrow.

Tell your partner two things that you would like to do.

twinkl

twinkl
Quality Standard
Approved