St. Louis Infant School Mission Statement

In our school we educate young children boys and girls in the early years of their Primary Education.

We aim to create a happy and caring atmosphere in a content and safe environment.

We value each child as a unique person with different gifts and different potential.

All children are treated equally regardless of gender, background, religion, race or circumstance.

We recognise the importance of developing self-confidence, a sense of dignity and a good self-image.

We try to develop qualities that bring children closer to others and closer to God.

We realise the importance of teaching children interpersonal skills, helping them to socialise, show respect for themselves and others and to value and respect property.

All members of staff share these ideals, values and attitudes.

We are very conscious of the power of good example and of being clearly focused.

We value each child under our care and we appreciate the person above the performance.

We treat all with fairness and generosity, balancing kindness with firmness.

We provide a well-balanced programme of work that includes the development of self-esteem and an appreciation of nature.

We motivate the children by providing experiences and challenges which are within their capabilities and allow them to develop at their own pace.

We see ourselves as partners in education with parents and value both formal and informal contact with them.

We are aware that home situations differ and make allowances when necessary.
